INTERRACIAL CONFERENCE of ### Ministers Organized in Ahoskie

With hope of improving racial relations between the two groups, an interracial Baptist Ministers Conference was formed in Ahoskie recently by a group of 19 white and Negro Baptist Ministers from three counties.

Meeting in the Ahoskie Baptist Church, the ministers elected the Rev. J. B. Daily Jackson, as president; the Rev. R. H. Patterson, vice-president; Dr. P. A. Bishop, president of the General Baptist State Convention of N. C., Inc., secretary; and the Rev. Chester A. Hart, associate secretary.

The ministers represented Baptist churches in Bertie, Northampton, and Hertford counties.

Sponsor of the group, the Rev. Mr. Creech, told the church leaders "that such a group is needed to develop better understanding between the two races and to be mutually helpful."

The Rev. H. L. Mitchell, Negro farm agent for Gates County and pastor of several churches, told the group that there were good reasons for the conference. "Better understanding of the church program, better services to the church program, and finding better means of getting 'our

Our New Executive Secretary

In a special session of the General Baptist State Convention, December 16, the Rev. O. L. Sherrill who had acted as executive secretary since November 1, was elevated to the position of executive secretary.

The Rev. Mr. Sherrill has been associated with the executive office for the past two years as field representative and assistant to the executive secretary. Since the unified program was started some twelve years ago, he has been closely connected with the Convention as a part-time worker.

Before his full-time work with the Convention, the Rev. Mr. Sherrill served as pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church of Wilmington. Previously, he pastored the Union Grove Baptist Church, Youngsville; Mount Sinai Baptist Church of Fayetteville; and Spring Garden Baptist Church, Washington, N. C.

He has served as instructor in theology at Roanoke Institute since the reorganization of the Institute in Elizabeth City as a unit of Shaw University. The new executive is also president of the Theological Alumni Association of Shaw University.

Born in Troutman, N. C. (Iredell County), the Rev. Mr. Sherrill received his high school training in Statesville. He was graduated from Shaw University in 1936 with the A.B. and B.D. degrees. He has had advanced work in theology at Union Theological Seminary, New York.

The Rev. Sherrill will work directly under an administrative committee that was elected also during the special session. The committee is composed of President P. A. Bishop, Dr. O. S. Bullock, Raleigh; Dr. A. S. Croom, Durham; the Rev. L. W. Wertz, Hamlet; E. M. Butler, Wilmington; and President R. P. Daniel of Shaw University as associate member.

To Rev. Sherrill and the committee, North Carolina Baptists should give their unprecedented support.

From The Executive Secretary

Dear Christian Workers:

I am taking this opportunity to express to you my sincere appreciation which you have given me to serve the General Baptist Convention in the capacity of Executive Secretary. I am conscious of the many responsibilities and hard work that will be involved, but I am also mindful of the fact that with the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the splendid cooperation that I shall receive from the very fine pastors and laymen, the work shall go on smoothly.

I hope you have not forgotten the very fine recommendations that President Bishop made at the Convention in Goldsboro. You accepted these recommendations whole heartedly, and I do hope that you are going to put forth every effort to make this the Banner Year. It can be done if all of us will recognize ourselves as God's faithful stewards.

During the month of December we received contributions from quite a few of our churches, but we would like for the other seventeen hundred churches to see the importance of sending in their contributions monthly. This will enable us to get out of debt and then do more for Shaw, Foreign Missions, State Missions and the Orphanage.

Mission days will be held in most of our cities and rural churches during the next few months and when the notices come to you, please give us a favorable response.

We are also getting ready for our One Day Conferences to be held in each of the Associations during the next few months. We would like for the Moderators to give us their dates immediately because we do not want our program to lag. These meetings are for the purpose of acquainting our people with the objectives of our convention.

With high hopes for a great year in Kingdom Building, I am

Yours for Service,
O. L. Sherrill.

THE USHER, A CONGREGATION ENGINEER

CAN A CHRISTIAN REALLY BE GOD-LED?

H. Max Good

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God (Rom. 8:14).

In these days of spiritual apostasy many people are wondering, "Can a man really be led of the Spirit of God, or is there any Spirit of God?" This is a fair question for a man to ask who is seeking the truth, but who does not yet know what the truth is. I am sure that every thinking man is convinced that there is a God. We see positive evidence of this statement on all sides today. The very world we live in is a testimony of Him. No one would be so foolish as to look at a watch and say that it "just happened," yet the world runs more precisely than any watch ever manufactured. Therefore, we must be assured of this, that the world has a greater Creator than anything which has been made by man.

Look at the perfect timing and the rotation of the planets and the seasons in our world. Life itself is evidence that God is, for He is the Giver of life. Can God make Himself known to man who lives in this creation and exists by His mercy? God the Father has never been looked upon by any man and that man continue to live, because the holiness and the purity of God are more than man can behold. Therefore, we must determine that man is not led by God the Father.

Indianapolis, Ind. were among special guest speakers. Dr. George W. Moore of Raleigh, for many years prominent in Christian Circles in North Carolina, died at the age of 86. The Rev. Dr. James E. Shepard, founder and only president of North Carolina College in Durham, died at his residence after several days of serious illness. Dr. Shepard at one time was field superintendent of the International Sunday School Association.

November

The Rev. Thomas Kilgore completed his work as executive secretary of the convention and left to assume the pastorate of the Friendship Baptist Church in New York. The 82nd Anniversary of Shaw University was observed with the Rev. C. E. Griffin of Norfolk, Va. as principal founder's day speaker.

December

In a special session of the General Convention, the Rev. O. L. Sherrill was elected executive secretary. A committee on administration was also elected. Members elected were—President P. O. Bishop, Dr. O. S. Bullock, the Rev. L. W. Wertz, Dr. A. S. Croom, E. M. Butler and President R. P. Daniel of Shaw, associate member.

Dr. Wendell C. Somerville, executive secretary of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, left by Pan American Airways to visit several mission fields, in Africa and South America. A State Laymen's Movement was initiated at the First Church in Raleigh. Approximately sixty laymen, representing twenty-one churches, attended the meeting.

Can A Christian Really be God-led?

The prophecy of Jesus Christ came hundreds of years before Jesus did, but finally He came and truly was God the Son in and through the midst. The miracles that He performed, the words He spoke, the grace He bestowed—all of them declared His deity. The Son was nailed to the Cross and there He died; He was laid in the grave, where an unbelieving world expected Him to stay, but He rose and ascended to the right hand of God the Father. Jesus is not here in person, so He cannot lead us, but He gave the promise of a Comforter. He said, "I will not leave you comfortless . . . nevertheless . . . it is expedient for you that I go away." On the Mount of Olives when He lifted His hands and blessed the people and ascended into heaven, angels reminded them that they were to tarry and pray until they received the promise of the Father.

Now, this is the Dispensation of the Holy Spirit, and without Him we cannot know the will of God or the leadership of God. With Him, the perfect plan of God is revealed. The Comforter was not sent into the world to lead everyone, but only the children of God were to be led. An unbelieving world has been promised no Comforter under any circumstances, but we have received this promise, for we are His. We know that we can be directed of God by the power of the Holy Spirit, for in Romans 8:14 we read, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." I think this could be acceptably reversed for as many as are the sons of God, they are led by the Spirit of God.

The Spirit of God has led in all spiritual advances. When reading his Bible while yet a monk in the Roman Church, hidden in a convent, Martin Luther was moved by the Holy Spirit. He learned that "the just shall live by faith" and not by works. He wrote his thesis, nailed them on the door of the Roman Church, and a great revival started.

Wesley's heart was strangely warmed, and you remember the story of the Wesleyan Revival. Today, as a memorial to the leading of the Spirit of God in Wesley's life, there is a chain of Methodist churches around the world.

It was Knox who began the Presbyterian Church, and being led of the Spirit, he won thousands to a saving knowledge of His matchless grace. There was a shoestore clerk in Chicago, too, whose name was Moody. The Spirit of God moved his heart and he went into the streets of that great Windy City and gathered boys and girls around him, and told them of the love of Christ. He was so led and moved until eventually he stood, as it were, with one foot in Europe and one in America, rocking these two nations closer to God by the power of the Holy Spirit. No one dare say that these men were merely "smart" or "shrewd." The Spirit of God leads so directly that He even tells you to turn to the right or left, and He has not confined Himself to one man or community. Thank God, He is everywhere! He convicts of sin and righteousness and judgment. No man realizes his sin but what the Spirit of God has revealed it to him. No man knows what is right but what the Spirit of God has revealed this. None have realized the full fear of the judgment except the Holy Spirit reveals that judgment.

Regardless of your vocation or calling, if you are a child of God, the Spirit of God will lead you, proving which is the wrong and which is the right. He is no respecter of persons. He careth for you!

FILL A SHIP WITH FRIENDSHIP

A shipload of clothing, shoes and bedding is the goal of the statewide drive for overseas relief, January 25-31. Sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches, the aim of the drive is to reach every household in the state in an effort to "Fill a Ship with Friendship." With a ship's cargo estimated at 3½ million pounds, that means an average of one pound of goods from everyone in the state is needed to reach the goal.

Organized on a county basis, chairmen have been sought in each of the state's one hundred counties from among church and lay leaders. Representatives of almost all denominations are among the leaders of the drive. Throughout the state, plans are made for house-to-house collections.

All materials contributed will be sent overseas through the interdenominational church relief organization, Church World Service. They will go to the Church World Service Center at New Windsor, Maryland, for sorting and packing. Shipment through this church agency guarantees that all goods will be packed and shipped promptly, that overhead costs will be at a minimum and that distribution will be made abroad on the basis of need alone.

Through the new Church World Service film, THIS ROAD WE WALK, a vivid picture of needs and work overseas is given. There are 50 prints of the motion picture in North Carolina for the drive. The film is 16mm. sound and about 20 minutes in length.

Contributions asked are: goods, used clothing, shoes (tied in pairs), bedding, including worn sheets, linens, kitchenware, silverware, soap and candles.

Remember the date, January 25-31. Remember the goal: "Fill a Ship with Friendship." Give through your local drive.

Dear Sisters and Co-workers:

We trust that the New Year finds you happy in the Lord and looking forward with increased faith to the accomplishment of greater tasks; the attempting of more difficult undertakings for the CAUSE—with an increasing amount of patience, strength and love.

This new year finds us busy laying plans for greater accomplishments in uniting our forces for a more "Inclusive Stewardship."

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee it was generally agreed that we can meet all of our responsibilities for our Home Field if all our Baptist women would TITHE, we could add to our local church budgets; and double our offerings for missions. What a challenge for Our Baptist Women today! Whether we meet it depends upon our attitude. We can accept the tithing campaign with delight and make it a joyous experience.

Let us teach the doctrine of TITHING as never before and in our teaching let us implant the spirit of love and joy in our giving. DUTY demands our TITHE. Love makes both TITHES and OFFERINGS a privilege.

Our Conventional theme "An all Inclusive Stewardship" certainly demands that "our all shall be laid on the Altar." "But first they gave themselves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God." (II Cor. 8:5.)

FOR YOUR ATTENTION

January is the first month in the Third Quarter—remember to send your contributions early.

"YOUR MISSIONARY HELPER"

Gratifying indeed has been the interest shown in this our little devotional booklet. See that every member of your circle owns a copy—Also other members of your church.

It is designated to give devotional aid, to encourage, strengthen, and inspire Missionary workers. Begin the Year Right. Give Subscriptions to "The Missionary Helper."

SUBSCRIPTION RATE—$1.00 per year.

From Our Field Director

Happy New Year, Co-laborers:

As we begin the New Year, we are also beginning a new quarter in our Convention's program of work in the Master's Kingdom.

I have received my copy of the Missionary Helper for this quarter, and I am delighted with it.

The theme, "Our task—World-wide Evangelization," fits beautifully into the theme of last quarter "An All Inclusive Stewardship."

World-wide Evangelization can come only when the Christians become willing to practice an inclusive Stewardship. That is, our stewardship must include all of life, the physical, mental, moral, spiritual, social and our possessions.

To be a true Steward the Christian must "study to show thyself a workman of God that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the work of truth." The WORD is the only power that can evangelize the world. The Christian must know the WORD. Study, Practice the WORD; living daily, a workman without shame. Rightly dividing the WORD of truth; teaching. The Christian must give—that the gospel preached unto the utmost parts of the earth so that all peoples of the earth may hear the word.

World-wide Evangelism begins in our own house—our homes, and moves from there to our church, our community, our county, our State, our nation and our world.

The world is in trouble today, its heart is sick; it needs the "mericale drud." The WORD of TRUTH to cure its bleeding heart. I believe that the world could be evangelized within our generation if the so-called Christian nations would take their light of truth from under the bushel of selfishness, prejudice, jealousy, greed and race hatreds and place it on the candlestick of love, so that this sin sick world could see the light.

This quarter is also our mission study emphasis quarter. I trust that each circle will have at least one mission study class this quarter. See that several members of your circle attend the Institute held in your section this winter and spring. Let us use these cold winter days to prepare ourselves for better service when the spring comes. Write the office for books.

If you did not study the "Manuel" last quarter, make a special study of it this quarter so as to have your organization working smoothly and ready for a big job when spring opens.

May God bless you. I am continuing to improve, thank God. Write to me.

Sincerely yours,

Martha J. Brown,

Box 344, Maxton, N. C.

Junior Corner

The Junior Officers met in a half day session on December 6, 1947, to formulate plans for 1948. Our State Jr. Supervisor gave us many plans and suggestions which you will receive soon. Already our field worker is mailing each circle a copy of our Outlook for 1948.

I can't tell you just what the plan is to raise the Junior Funds for 1948, because this campaign is going to be very short and will not start until nearly convention time, but I'm sure you will be most enthusiastic about the idea.

As a result of our December meeting this Corner is going to be ours, Juniors—so if you have any inspiring thoughts and happenings in your circle, or if your circle has some method of making our service for Christ more effective—please write and tell me. Don't you think the rest of us should know?

I wish for each of you a new year filled with blessings, happiness and most of all—Service for God and love for your fellowmen.

Don't forget to send your happenings to Jr. Corner! Mozele, Alston,

THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE CHILDREN'S PAGE

LUELLA DICKENS EDWARDS, Director
Vacation Bible School Division

My dear Little Friends:

First of all, I want to wish every one of you a HAPPY, HAPPY NEW YEAR. For twelve months now, a page just for you has been appearing in the Baptist Informer regularly. Just think: one whole year. My! how swiftly time passes. At that rate this marks our First Anniversary. Well, boys and girls, I have really enjoyed writing to you every month, and I hope that the stories, special features, articles, poems, cut-outs, pictures and questions have been both interesting and helpful.

So, here we start again on another year's journey. A New Year. Do you remember our very story last year? It was about a little boy named Tom who learned that "life is a stairway and it depends how you live each step of the way up what kind of man or woman you will grow up to be." There are 365 steps before us, and we'd better start climbing.

Some people like to begin every New Year by turning over a new leaf, or by making New Year's resolutions (making up their minds to do better). Some of them are broken within twelve days instead of twelve months. But, what about you. Have you made any yet? Have you kept them up to now? If you have made some that's all right. It is quite popular to make resolutions, not only at New Year's but at any time. I think it's a good thing, because in this way, we attempt to correct our faults, develop new habits and become better boys and girls. As a matter of fact, I have a few to suggest. I know it will be the last of the month before your copy of the Informer arrives, therefore, my resolutions are not for New Year's only, but are as Life resolutions.

Little Friends, say to yourselves:

I will do all that I can to contribute something toward helping those about me whether in my home, at school, at play, or in my community. I will press out the rough edges of my personality and conduct so as to cause as little trouble as possible to others. I will stay out of quarrels and not say harsh words to any of my friends. I will try to be very, very friendly to all.

I will acknowledge my talents that have been given to me by God. I have two hands, two feet, two eyes, and one life—these are all I will ever have, so, with them I will try hard to prepare myself to work in His vineyard.

I will be more loyal to myself, my parents, my friends, my country and my God. I will control my actions so as to "grow in wisdom and knowledge, and in favor with God and men."

Let's have a prosperous new year boys and girls and let me hear from you soon.

I have chosen some questions for you this month. It has been quite some time since I wrote any. So here goes.

STATE LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT ORGANIZED AS AUXILIARY to General Convention

In response to a call issued by the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc., approximately sixty laymen representing twenty-one churches attended a meeting held at the First Baptist Church of Raleigh, Dr. O. S. Bullock, Pastor, on Sunday, December 14, at 2 p. m.

Following dinner which was served by the Laymen's League of the First Baptist Church as a courtesy to the visitors, the meeting was called to order by Dr. O. S. Bullock.

Dr. Bullock and the Rev. O. L. Sherrill, acting executive secretary of the Convention, made introductory statements regarding the purpose of the call and emphasized the important functions which such an organization could have in helping to carry on the great Baptist Program of the state. Representatives present readily accepted the idea and formed a permanent organization.

Initial officers elected were: W. H. Quarles, Shaw University, Raleigh, President; Dr. W. R. Perry, Burlington, first vice-president; James J. Rhoe, Wilmington, second vice-president; Arthur Williams, Louisburg, third vice-president; R. E. Dalton, East Spencer, recording secretary; George B. Russ, Durham, assistant recording secretary; L. B. Watson, Charlotte, treasurer; Atty. J. S. Bowser, Charlotte, corresponding secretary, and C. F. Graves, Elizabeth City, chairman of the executive committee.

Elected as members of the committee were: Atty. Bowser, George H. Bostic, Pinehurst; W. H. Taylor, Raleigh; R. L. Levister, Rocky Mount; J. E. Evans, High Point; E. O. Hairston, Winston-Salem; George L. Singleton, Lexington; and Robert Harris, Zebulon.

HEADS LAYMEN

W. H. Quarles, secretary of Shaw University and administrative secretary of the President, was elected president of the State Laymen's Movement in its initial meeting December 14 in Raleigh.

Mr. Quarles is president of the Usher's Board of the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, and is a recognized leader in the scouting, and community improvement movements in Raleigh and vicinity.

The following churches were represented in the meeting:

Fancy Hill, High Shoals; Saint John, Aberdeen; Galilee, Pinehurst; Shady Grove, East Spencer; New Jerusalem, Winston-Salem; Union, Winston-Salem; First Baptist, Zebulon; Maiden Chapel, Maiden; First Baptist, Raleigh; Tupper Memorial, Raleigh; Saint Paul, Charlotte; First Baptist, Charlotte; Union Baptist, Durham; Mount Nebo, Wilmington; Mount Zion, Rocky Mount; Mitchell Chapel, Louisburg; First Baptist, Burlington; Cornerstone Baptist, Elizabeth City; First Baptist, High Point; First Baptist, Lexington; and Smith Grove, Lexington.

Never neglect contributing in the Missionary offering. It is one of the best means you have to express your love for the less fortunate peoples of the world.

FORMER EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Listed on Tide-Water ACHIEVEMENT HONOR ROLL

The Rev. C. E. Griffin, pastor of the First Calvary Baptist Church of Norfolk, Va., and former executive secretary of the General Baptist State Convention of N. C., Inc., was listed on the first Honor Roll of citizens of the Norfolk, Portsmouth and Peninsula areas, "who by their exceptional achievements in ten categories of vital activity, and by their contributions to the general welfare, eminently merit the felicitations of their fellowmen."

The Honor Roll was inaugurated by the Norfolk Journal and Guide, national weekly newspaper. Selections were made by a distinguished committee of citizens, in cooperation with the Journal and Guide.

In naming the Rev. Mr. Griffin, the newspaper gives the following citation:

"The Rev. C. E. Griffin has set a laudable example of religious leadership as pastor of the First Calvary Baptist Church. While integrating the activities of his church with those of the community during 1947, he continued and expanded a broad program of educational, missionary and health advancement.

"The church now gives each year to home and foreign missions a total of $12,000, the largest amount of any Negro Baptist Church in the country. It has held this record for the past three years. Rev. Mr. Griffin's church sponsored 11 students in college during 1947, in some cases paying the entire cost of their schooling. It pays full rent for several poor families in the city. The church also hires a full-time graduate nurse to visit sick members. Caring for its own old and indigent members, it does not send them to the city home, but houses them in its own home in the adjoining county.

"A credit union organized in June, 1946, has grown through skillful direction to a membership of 100. In addition, there is a visual aid program each week. An annual leadership program is conducted by the pastor.

"The chimes of First Calvary Baptist are heard for several blocks each noon, reverencing the memory of veterans who gave their lives for the country in World War II.

"Rev. Mr. Griffin, who was called to the Norfolk church three years ago, is active in various community organizations. He is a member of the board of Norfolk Community Hospital, a gold star member of the executive committee for the expansion membership campaign of Hutton Branch Y. M. C. A., and president of the local NAACP."

folk to church' were cited as possible results by Mr. Mitchell.

Dr. Bishop echoed the sentiments of the Rev. Mitchell and said the conference would "help us to take more seriously the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God."

Among other ministers attending was the Rev. John W. White, state director of Baptist Training Union work of the General Baptist State Convention.

JUST FOR FUN

A grocer passed away. He rapped on the gates of Hades asking permission to enter.

"What do you want to come in here for?" inquired Satan.

"Because every time I tried to collect from them, this is where they told me to go."

Officer (to Blind beggar)—you are under arrest for reading a newspaper!

Blind beggar: I wasn't reading—I was just looking at the picture.

Officer: Oh, excuse me.

—Messenger.

PREJUDICE

HOW DO WE RECOGNIZE IT?

We are prejudiced

IF we believe that our race is born with more ability, more brains and character, than other races

IF we think that members of our own church are good and most others queer or bad

IF we ever accuse a whole group of people of anything

IF we repeat rumors or gossip about other groups

IF we believe members of some groups should stay out of certain jobs and schools

IF we keep our children or friends from associating with members of other races and creeds

BUT

We are people of goodwill

IF we judge every person by his own record

IF we believe that all groups are born with the same ability and can make good if they have equal chances

IF we make friends with members of all groups

IF we work for a square deal in jobs, votes, homes and schools for everybody

IF we acknowledge the many made by all groups to our own welfare

—From Building Bridges; by Willard Johnson

"Pat, said the fifth-grade teacher, in an arithmetic review, 'How many make a million?'"

And the experienced and realistic Pat promptly replied, "Very few."

TOLERANCE ON INCREASE

While the American people, as a whole, have not been made more deeply religious as a result of the war, greater understanding and tolerance is developing between persons of different faiths, according to a survey made by CBS' "Guiding Light" author Irna Phillips, who polled 4,500 ministers affiliated with the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. The "Guiding Light" serial's principal character is a minister who has, during the program's decade on the air, dealt with a wide variety of social problems common to every community. (CBS, 1:45-2:00 PM, EST., Mon.-thru-Fri. From Hollywood).

History is repeating itself, the polled clergymen believe, in a post-war decadence in morals and manners.

Asked to name specific qualities an "ideal" minister should possess to be of maximum service to his ministrants and community, most clergymen stated: "Christian faith"; followed by "Love of people, humility" and "scholarship and training." Other qualifications suggested were "sincerity, imagination, devotion, sound judgment, idealism and a sense of humor."

The Baptists Need Shaw University and Shaw University Needs the Baptists

What has 82 years of Shaw's influence meant to the Baptists of North Carolina? Or putting it another way, what would have been the status of the Baptists in North Carolina today without Shaw's influence?

How would the Methodist feel in North Carolina without a Livingston College? How would the Presbyterian in North Carolina feel without a Johnston C. Smith University? How would the Episcopalian feel in North Carolina without a St. Augustine's College? The Baptists which boast of more members than all the other denominations combined, would feel like a man with both arms cut off without Shaw University.

The fact is, Shaw University is directly responsible for the large number of Baptists which we have in the State today.

Eighty-two years ago, before the skies were clear of the smoke from the Civil War which resulted in the freedom of the slaves, Tupper, a Baptist minister, from Boston, came down to train Baptist preachers and teachers. So the "Tupper School" got a grand good start in training leaders for the church before any of the other denominations. The name of the "Tupper School" was finally changed to Shaw University, because of large gift of several thousand dollars by Elijah Shaw to build the first brick buildings. So back in those early days, Shaw University stood tops in Education in North Carolina. History reveals the fact that Negroes in North Carolina had a four year Baptist college in Raleigh, the capital, before there was a four year college in the capital of North Carolina for White people. This fact gives one the feeling of the powerful influence Shaw University had in spreading Baptist influence throughout North Carolina in those early days which now makes it possible today for us to enjoy and boast of 250,000 members and about 1,700 Baptist churches. If today we do nothing but sit down and boast and enjoy the number of Baptists we have in North Carolina, within the short space of another 82 years other denominations, including the Catholics, will rightfully take our place and the Baptists of North Carolina will then be a negligible influence among us. With no school to train leadership for the church, with no school of our denomination to support, in the short space of four generations, the boot can slip on the other foot.

So the Baptists of North Carolina needs Shaw University now as much as it did in any period of its history. If Baptist heritage is stabilized in North Carolina the Baptists must become Shaw's greatest benefactors today and onward. This is not a trivial matter. There are more than 100 vacant Baptist churches in North Carolina today. We do not have enough room at Shaw to accommodate enough young men in training to take care of the vacant Baptist churches which now exists.

Because of the prevalence of public high schools now scattered over the State and five Public Colleges, most of our churches from now on are going to demand leadership of some training, or else many of their members will turn in other directions where they can find the type of leadership desired.

At this very moment, Shaw University is practically our sole help in meeting this demand not only in training further leadership, but also in training pastors now in service. Through its rural church department, department of Missionary and Christian Education, Ministers' Institutes, and Summer courses at Shaw, our school is training annually more than 1,000 pastors and Christian workers.

Imagine Shaw University taken out of Baptist influence today and you will see the cause of the Baptists in North Carolina slipping backwards faster than the waters rushing down the strong current of a river. The Baptists of North Carolina need Shaw University.

Again let us remember that the educational influence in the public schools will not favor our cause during the next 82 years as it has done in the past. The "State School Fact" as late as 1932 stated that 65% of its public school teachers attended school at Shaw University. With many teachers now being trained at five State supported colleges the above picture has more than reversed itself. And the churches throughout the State are realizing a change. This means that Shaw's influence needs to be broadened and strengthened in its Extension Departments, institutional service to pastors, added emphasis or courses in Christian leadership through the School of Religion, etc. The Baptists need this help and influence from Shaw in order to hold its own.

But this additional service to the Baptists cause will call for additional finances. So that brings us to the second thought. "Shaw University needs the Baptists."

Shaw needs more support from the Baptists, if it is to render greater service to our cause in the State. Shaw does not need more support from the Baptists in order to exist. But if Shaw is to increase her services and influence to our cause, which is mandatory if we are to hold our own, she must have more support from the cause that needs her help and influence.

If the Baptists is to continue to hold her influence in North Carolina, plans should now be made by the Baptists to encourage each member of our 1,700 churches to make an annual contribution to Shaw University. And the proper machinery should be set in motion to sell this need, as a matter of self preservation of our cause, to the pastors of our 1,700 churches. The Baptist body of North Carolina can save itself by becoming Shaw's greatest benefactor. What a glorious opportunity and challenge for the Baptists to maintain its strength in the State, and what a glorious opportunity and challenge Shaw University will have to strengthen and continue its helpful influence to a great cause which she has so nobly challenged for 82 years.

G. E. Cheek
Public Relations Director of Shaw University

In order to see into life, and still more, into ourselves, suffering is necessary.

—Jean Paul Richter.

Why Not Weekly Missionary Offerings?

Hundreds of Churches in North Carolina Have Initiated Weekly Missionary Offerings As A Vital Part of Their Program of Worship. This Practice Has Resulted in Helping Members to Realize the Stewardship of the Church in Supporting Causes Outside the Church, and With it the Church Has Grown.

If Your Church does Not Provide This Opportunity, A Vital Worship Experience is Being Missed, And Your Church Is Failing to Recognize Its Stewardship in Extending Christianity throughout the Universe. It Can Not Grow!

The Cooperative Program of the General Baptist State Convention of N. C., Inc., Provides a Medium for Churches to Contribute towards the Extension of Missions in Other Lands; the Promotion of A College that Seeks to Make Education Christian; and Towards A Program to Make North Carolina Better.

Each Month in the Baptist Informer, the churches that Make Contribution to the Cooperative Program During the Previous Month, are listed With the Amount they contribute.

From Every Undesignated Contribution, a Portion is sent to help Promote Foreign Mission as sponsored by the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, U. S. A.; a portion is Sent to Promote Christian Education at Shaw University (Our Great Baptist College) and a Portion is directed to Help Promote a Program of Education and Relief among Baptist Churches, and a Vital Home Mission Program in North Carolina.

Why Not Weekly Missionary Offerings In Every Missionary Church? It Will Help Your Regular Offerings—For Then Your Membership Will Recognize that Their Church is Not A Community Church—But A WORLD CHURCH and Will Feel A Greater Stewardship Consciousness.

Have your Church to Start Next Month—Giving The Membership A Chance to Worship God With An Offering For Missions! Send Your Contributions the First of Each Month to Your State Headquarters. For Your First Contribution, Use the Form Below:
